Press Release

01/21/10

On January the 20th, 2010 at about 11pm SWAT Officers from the Park County Sheriff's Office, Teller County Sheriff's Office and Clear Creek County Sheriff's Office, in a coordinated operation, executed two outstanding arrest warrants at 171 Pine Dr. in the Webber Park subdivision near Lake George, CO.

Casey Eleeson, 22 was arrested on a felony warrant out of South Dakota for 2 counts of attempted murder.

Seth Ebert, 34 from Colorado Springs was arrested for accessory to a crime (harboring), burglary, criminal trespass and two outstanding warrants.

The arrests culminated after a three week-long investigation conducted by the Park County Sheriff's Office and the United States Marshal's Office.

The two fugitives surrendered to authorities without incident. A search of the residence conducted by Park County Detectives turned up one rifle, two handguns and a cache of ammunition.

Sheriff Fred Wegener would like to express his sincere thanks and appreciation to the District Attorney's Office, other Law Enforcement agencies that were involved, Park County Telecom, Park County Mapping and Park County Communications for their valuable assistance in this case.

During Casey Eleeson's court advisement on January 21st, she waived extradition to the state of South Dakota.
