Verbal Argument over Nude Photo on Phone, Bailey

On Sunday, May 13 at 9:15 AM a husband found the nude photo of a male on his wife's phone. When he loudly awakened her an argument ensued and he left the residence. No crime committed and the husband left the home with some clothing.

Impersonating a PCSO Deputy Report, Summit County

On May 15, 2018 a Summit County Sergeant called to advise the PCSO that an adult male with a southern accent has been telephoning Summit County citizens claiming to be Sgt. Walkins with Park County Sheriff's Office (no person by that name is employed with this agency). The impersonator told the victim that there was a warrant for the victim's arrest and the victim could take care of the warrant by sending him K-Mart electronic cash cards.

Warrant Arrest, Bailey

A Deputy contacted a party at his residence at around 6:00 PM on Tuesday, May 15 and arrested the party on a warrant for Failure to Comply. He was transported to the Park County Jail.

Argument over a Raccoon, Harris Park

A party called Park County Communications on May 15 at approximately 9:41 PM to report an argument and possible assault that occurred when one party may have shot a pellet gun at a raccoon that the first party is familiar with. The caller claimed he was struck in the chest by an elbow and had a cigarette butt "flicked" into his face by the second party. Deputies took a report and it was forwarded to the District Attorney.

Domestic Violence Arrest, Bailey

Deputies responded to a residence near Bailey on Wednesday, May 16 at 12:45 AM due to a call about a verbal disturbance. When on scene the Deputies witnessed the female party shove the male reporting party. Following interviews the intoxicated female was arrested and transported to the Park County Jail where she caused some minor disruptions in the Booking area. She was charged with Harassment and Domestic Violence.
