PARK COUNTY CONTRACTOR LICENSE INFORMATION

PO Box 517 Fairplay, CO 80440
719-836-4255
Fax 719-836-4268

Park County requires all general contractors to have an appropriate contractor license, issued by Park County, to contract for construction work in the unincorporated areas of Park County and any regions where Park County has an Intergovernmental Agreement. Park County also requires that excavation contractors, roofing contractors and mechanical contractors carry a Park County contractor license.

The Class A license entitles the holder to contract for and build, alter or repair any commercial structure. The Class B license entitles the holder to contract for and build, alter or repair all single-family residence and related accessory structures. The Class C license entitles the holder to contract for the installation, alteration and repair of roof coverings. The Class E license entitles the holder to contract for excavation work. The Class F license entitles the holder to contract for labor and materials involving heating, ventilating, solar and air conditioning. The Class G license entitles the holder to contract for the installation of manufactured homes (they must also carry an installation certificate with the State of Colorado Division of Housing). The holder of this license also has Class B license entitlements.

TESTING

There are two ways to obtain a Park County Contractor License. The first method is to take the test offered in the Fairplay office Monday – Thursday 7:00am till 6:00pm. The test for Class A is an open book test based on the 2012 International Building Code. The test for Class B, Class G and Class C is an open book test based on 2012 International Residential Code. The test for Class F is an open book test based on the 2012 International Mechanical Code. This test is not timed and the book can be purchased at our office in Fairplay. There is a $50.00 re-take fee for each failed test. There is no test for the Class E contractor. The second method is to provide a copy of a current, equivalent ICBO (ICC) certification on the 2012 edition of the IRC, IBC, or IMC. ICBO (ICC) offers a contractor test available at the testing centers along the front-range, to find out more about ICC certifications go to www.iccsafe.org or for Class F for solar contractor to provide a copy of their NABCEP or COSEIA.

The license will belong to whomever passes the test or provides the ICC Certification and is non-transferable.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

INSURANCE

Park County Class A Contractors are required to carry current liability insurance covering the type of contracting they are performing of not less than $300,000 per incident and $600,000 aggregate. Contractors must also carry worker's compensation insurance if they have employees. Contractors who do not have employees are required to fill out and sign the Release Form attached to the application. All insurance must be kept current and the contractor must present a Certificate of Liability Insurance at the time of application. Class G contractors are required to keep their certification obligations with the State of Colorado Division of Housing current. Their certification will be checked as they bring in plans for their project. All other contractors can keep insurance they deem necessary to operate their business and a copy of this insurance will be kept with Park County. If a contractor deems they do not need to keep insurance a coverage form of insurance will be signed and kept with their file.

RENEWAL

Contractor licenses expire on December 31 of each year and will need to be renewed within 30 days. Although the Building Department sends out a notice of renewal, it is your responsibility to make sure your license and insurance are current. If your license is not renewed within 30 days of expiration you will need to re-test where applicable and pay the new license fee. We do not pro-rate licenses.

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS PARK COUNTY COLORADO

RESOLUTION 2005-78

A RESOLUTION PERTAINING TO THE REGISTRATION OF CONTRACTORS DOING BUSINESS IN PARK COUNTY

Whereas, the Park County Board of Commissioners has deemed it to be in the best interest of the residents of Park County to provide for the registration of individuals, who function as contractors in the County; and

Whereas, in the past previous Boards of County Commissioners have passed resolutions for the same purpose; and

Whereas, the Park County Board of County Commissioners finds that there is a need to update the provisions of the previously enacted resolutions; and

Whereas, after review of the proposed registration provisions at a duly noticed public meeting, the Park County Board of County Commissioners has determined that the proposed resolution is reasonable and is in the best interests of Park County residents.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

Resolution 96-59 regarding contractor licensing be hereby repealed and the following adopted as the Contractor Licensing/Registration requirements for Park County, Colorado:

Park County Contractor License/Registration Certificate Requirements

Section 1. Purpose

The purpose of contractor licensing/registration is to help assure the citizens and officials of Park County that licensed/registered contractors possess a minimum amount of knowledge necessary to contract for the type of work for which a license/registration is held.

Licensing/Registering also provides an avenue in which to investigate citizen complaints concerning contractors and upon finding of sufficient cause, revocation or suspension of the contractor's license/registration.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

Section 2. Definitions

Contractor – any person, firm, or corporation who undertakes with or for another to perform any operation involving the construction, alteration, remodeling, repairing, decorating and equipping of buildings and other structures; improving of any lot; construction and repair of roads and streets, curbs and gutters for compensation other than wages or salary.
